To all current TJCCNA Presidents,
Advisory Council,
Vice Presidents and
Local Chapter Presidents:

This letter is to inform you about the Annual TJCCNA Conference being held in Orlando, Florida from June 19th to June 21st in 2009. During our midyear planning meeting in Las Vegas, the planning committee held a discussion about the Conference and since then, has made great strides to make the annual event educational, fun, successful and a ultimately, a grand professional networking event.

After the meeting, we were able to secure two prominent speakers to educate our next generation of young professionals. The first speaker is Dr. Greg McCann, author of When Your Parents Sign the Paychecks, and he will speak of family business and its related topics. There will also be a panel of young professionals that have worked in their own family businesses and they will share their own personal experiences in their related fields.

The second speaker possibly will be either be Dr. Henry Lee, the infamous forensic detective who helped with many well-known cases such as the O.J. Simpson trial (English presentation), or Fashion Designer Jason Wu, whom designed The First Lady's (Michelle Obama) Inaugural Dress.

As leaders of our organization, we encourage the increasing involvement of younger members to attend and participate in our annual conferences. Please forward this event to your local young professionals and I look forward to seeing many new faces in Orlando.

If you have any additional questions, concerns, suggestions about the conference, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Michael Chen
TJCCNA President
