

芝加哥台美商會
Taiwanese American Chamber of Commerce of Greater Chicago (2016-2017)

11/19/16

To Whom It May Concern:

On behalf of Taiwanese American Chamber of Commerce of Greater Chicago (TACCGC), please accept this letter as our wholehearted support and recommendation of Mr. Cheng-Yung Kuo on his running for the Presidency of World Taiwanese Chambers of Commerce Junior Chapter (WTCCJC).

Mr. Kuo career with Chamber of Commerce started out a few years ago when he helped out as a member of Taiwanese Junior Chamber of Commerce Chicago (TJCCC) in an annual meeting of Taiwanese Chamber of Commerce of North America (TCCNA) held in Chicago. Ever since, he held a post of the President of TJCCC for two consecutive years, moved on to become the President of Taiwanese Junior Chambers of Commerce of North America (TJCCNA) in 2015-2016 and he currently serves as the Director of the Board in TACCGC actively involving in the operation and decision making within Chicago Chapter. His experience demonstrates the well rounded commitments to Taiwanese Chambers of Commerce at a variety of levels. Because of his exceptional personal traits and leadership, he is the poster boy representing the best of Chicago chapter.

Aside from being one of the most active and dynamic local chapter supporting the business of TCCNA and WTCC, TACCGC is proud of being prolific in producing 4 ex. Presidents of TCCNA and numerous prominent figures. Mr. Kuo's campaign towards WTCCJC's presidency will be the first one originated from Chicago Chapter and many more to come. He has been a tremendous asset to TACCGC and will certainly contribute to the prosperity of WTCCJC, as we firmly anticipated and believed. Please call if you have any questions or comments. Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,

林俊光
Avery Lin

President of TACCGC